

Board of Directors Job Description (VOLUNTEER POSITION)

Star Legacy Foundation is seeking an individual for a VOLUNTEER board member position. Specifically, Star Legacy Foundation is seeking experience in any of the following areas to fulfill the position: medical practitioner or researcher, public health, fundraising. This is a remote volunteer position that can be done from any location.

Star Legacy Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to reducing pregnancy loss and neonatal death and improving care for families who experience such tragedies. We are a community of families, health professionals, researchers, policy makers, and individuals dedicated to helping every pregnancy have a happy ending. <https://starlegacyfoundation.org/>

OUR MISSION

To increase awareness, support research, promote education, and encourage advocacy and family support regarding stillbirth, pregnancy loss, and neonatal death.

OUR VISION

We believe there is great hope for the future to prevent many stillbirths and neonatal deaths in the United States and around the world. We envision that through the utilization of technology, education, grassroots efforts, and partnership, we can empower families and health professionals to identify and protect vulnerable babies.

RESPONSIBILITIES OR BOARD MEMBERS

- Advance the mission of the organization: To increase awareness, support research, promote education, and encourage advocacy and family support regarding stillbirth, pregnancy loss, and neonatal death.
- Attend Board of Directors meetings four times a year. One of these will be an in-person, weekend event for board development and planning. The other three will be held via conference call.
- Be a Star Legacy Foundation Champion through donations of time, talent, or treasure.
- Attend the Stillbirth Summit and other major events identified as critical to the success of the organization.
- Actively participate in one or more Star Legacy Foundation projects.
- Occasionally perform other various duties to help promote and grow the organization.
- Disclose and avoid any actual or potential conflicts of interest with other personal or organizational affiliations.
- Act in the best interests of the organization and comply with all applicable laws and regulations, as well as all Star Legacy bylaws, policies, procedures, standards, agreements, Code of Conduct, and guidelines.
- Serve a term of 3 years, which is renewable upon mutual agreement for up to 10 years.
- Stay up-to-date with the status of the organization.
- Be an active participant in communications, policy-making, discussions and other board business.
- Work in good faith with other board members, volunteers, and staff members.

EXPERIENCE

- The ideal candidate will have experience in the area of medicine, research, public health, or fundraising.
- Previous non-profit board experience is preferred, but not required.
- Strong communicator that is comfortable advocating the purpose and mission of the organization.
